ATTEMPT IS REPORTED MADE TO PAY OFF RANSOM ASKED BY KIDNAPERS OF AN INFANT

Westbury, N. Y. (AP)—An apparent attempt was made at the 10 a. m. deadline today to pay off the $2,000 ransom asked by the kidnaper who threatened death to four-week-old Peter Weinberger. However, there was no immediate indication that the effort succeeded.

Five minutes before the appointed hour, man believed to be the youngster's father, Morris Weinberger, strode from the front door of his suburban New York home here and placed a brown manilla envelope at the base of a tree about 100 feet from the house.

He walked back, re-entered the house and closed the door.

At 10:15 a. m., the envelope was still under the tree.

Swarms of reporters and photographers who earlier had been in the vicinity were asked to leave so that an effort might be made to pay the ransom, demanded in a note left when the tot was taken from his carriage in the Weinberger patio yesterday afternoon.

Police permitted one newsman, still photographer and one newsman to remain, but in a place where they would not be observed. It was they who saw the man believed to be the father put the envelope under the tree.

Police had been in and around the Weinberger home for hours. But none was to be seen as the envelope was placed.

The infant boy was temporarily unattended at the time of his kidnapping.

It had been reported earlier that the well-to-do parents were prepared to comply with the ransom demand.

An effort was made at first to travel up the abduction. Neither police nor the family nor neighbors would discuss it. But word leaked out as the hunt spread.

The sky was overcast when Mrs. Weinberger put Peter out for a midafternoon airing on the back patio. She tucked him into his carriage, then went back into the house to talk to her maid.

Not more than 15 minutes later she stepped out again to see how he was faring.

He was gone. In his place in the carriage was the ransom note.

Secretly the heartsick parents notified Nassau County police. Shortly detectives were swarming through the neighborhood, asking questions about possible strangers.

DISCUSSES TURNPIKE
Harrisburg, (AP)—Gov. Leader said today further expenditures for construction of the Erie County extension to the Pennsylvania Turnpike have been held up until the New Federal highway program is spelled out.

INJURIES PROVE FATAL
Clarion, (AP)—Injuries received last Sunday in an auto-truck collision on Route 68 near Clarion, yesterday proved fatal to Mrs. Edith M. Martin, 26, of Clarion.

Most businesses under a disaster would suspend operations temporarily, but Michael B. Burke, executive director for John Ringling North, and Lloyd Morgan, supervisor and engineer of all mechanical activities of the "Greatest Show On Earth," continued their exhibitions and upheld the tradition that "The Show Must Go On".

In the tradition of the show world the circus exhibited Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday under the blue sky at daytime performances and beneath the stars at night.

Traffic Death Total in the Nation Is Edging Toward the Pre-Holiday Estimates of 130

By The Associated Press
The nation's traffic deaths over the Fourth of July appeared edging toward the pre-holiday estimate of 130.

With final figures still to come in, the traffic toll for the 30-hour period starting at 6 p. m. local time, Tuesday and ending last midnight was 126. In other violent deaths, 72 drownings were reported and there were 34 deaths in miscellaneous accidents for an over-all total of 232.

No fireworks fatalities were reported this year.

The number of traffic fatalities as well as the over-all total was far greater than that reported on Memorial Day 109 and 174 and compared with a normal traffic toll of 80 for a Wednesday in early July.

The National Safety Council, which before the holiday had said 130 persons might be killed in automobile accidents, said indications were the final toll may approach 150.

"It's running even worse than we feared," said Council President Ned H. Dearborn. "And this is in the face of splendid efforts of law enforcement authorities who conducted a vigorous campaign."

Thirteen persons lost their lives in accidents in Pennsylvania during the 30-hour Fourth of July holiday period from 6 p. m. Tuesday until midnight last night.

Two highway accidents took four lives; five persons drowned and four were killed in other types of accidents.

Joseph Longhi, 22, of Clinton Heights and John Shields, 23, of Eddystone, were killed when their car veered out of control and smashed into a tree.

Crash Victim Pinned Helpless Nine Days Beneath Car Wreck

Salt Lake City, (AP)—An 18-year-old California girl says she heard automobile passing within 300 feet of her as she lay helpless for nine days under the wreckage of a car. Only 20 feet away lay the body of her fiance.

Jean Margetts, of Sunnyvale, Calif., spoke briefly yesterday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Margetts, as she recovered in a hospital room.

She was rescued Tuesday night after an airplane spotted the wreckage at the bottom of a 300-foot embankment just off heavily traveled U. S. Highway 40 east of Salt Lake City. Highway patrolmen at first thought Jean, as well as her fiance James Hixon, 22, Salt Lake City, was dead. But when a patrolman lifted a heavy log from her legs, she cried out.

The two had been the object of a statewide search since they disappeared while on a fishing trip June 24. They were to have been married in September.

Jean was badly emaciated when brought to a Salt Lake City hospital. She had had no food or water during the nine days she was trapped. She also received a skull fracture. At first listed as critical, she was later reported in fair condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Margetts reported she regained consciousness at times and told a little about her ordeal.

"She was quite coherent the little she talked to us," Mr. Margetts said. "She said she regained consciousness often and could hear traffic passing along the highway above but was unable to call out because she was so weak."

Mrs. Margetts and I must have driven within a few hundred feet of her dozens of times and didn't know she was there as we tried to help in the search for Jim and Jean."

Mr. Jones' death was the third violent death in the immediate Titusville district within a week and the first involving a Titusville resident.

A verdict of involuntary manslaughter was issued last night by Dr. Sonne but he did not name the person responsible. He said whoever fired the shot was careless in getting for food and freedom.

SPECTACULAR PARADE IS FOLLOWED BY DRUM CORPS EXHIBITION AND EVENING ENTERTAINMENT DESPITE RAIN THREAT

A crowd of almost 40,000 lined the Warren parade route on the Fourth of July to witness another magnificent procession sponsored by hard-working members of Junior Chamber of Commerce.

While the thousands watched, four F-86 Sabre Jets from Niagara Falls air base thundered overhead at tree-top level in three-tiered birthday cake topped by Miss Liberty won the top prize in the Industrial Division judging.

Standing atop the white, circular cake in draped toga and crown, bearing tablet and torch a la Statue of Liberty, was Elaine Massa. Gown was by Luella Barrett.

Another outstanding float was the National Forge presentation bearing Miss Warren County No. 7, Betty Ann Pasquino, and her four attendants, Linda Boardman, Pat Bengtson, Regina Coppola and Sandra Winner. The float was done in white along a fortress motif, with Miss Pasquino seated under a crown and flanked by her Court.

Carolyn Velier's Indian Bonnettes from Oil City Franklin were a grand crowd pleaser as the young girls in their red tunics provided some intricate marching rhythms along the route.

Parade winners in the Class C Drum Corps competition were the snappy Jamestown Vikings with their blue uniforms, yellow tassels and white shoes. Runners-up in order were the Limestone Black Panthers with Legionnaire caps and black uniforms set off by white stripes along the trouser sides; Buffalo Drum Corettes with short back skirts, black tassels on the hats and white boots; and float contest Russell Cub Pack 14 with 20-foot blue uniformed cub on truck took first place. Second place honors went to Watson Grange and their "old timers" and third was won by Scandia 4-H-ers who were attired in the green slacks and featured the hatted, nationwide steel strike.

Finnegan said he will meet with United Steelworkers' President David J. McDonald and John A. Stevens, U. S. Steel Corp. vice president and top industry negotiator, "try and find out what the points of difference are."

Finnegan said there are no immediate plans for resumption of the negotiations that broke off in New York Saturday six hours before.

MEDIATORS TO INTERVENE IN STRIKE TODAY

Pittsburgh (AP)—Joseph F. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation & Conciliation service, and two aides came to Pittsburgh today for "exploratory talks" with disputing parties in the 5-day old nationwide steel strike.

Finnegan said he will meet with United Steelworkers' President David J. McDonald and John A. Stevens, U. S. Steel Corp. vice president and top industry negotiator, "try and find out what the points of difference are."

Ex-Senator Myers Dies Victim of Leukemia

Philadelphia (AP)—Former U. S. Senator Francis J. Myers died shortly after 1 a. m. today at Graduate Hospital.

Doctors said that Myers, who was 54, died as a result of Leukemia.

The long-time Democratic leader represented Pennsylvania in Congress for three terms and was in the U. S. Senate for one term ending in 1951.

The first indication of his fatal illness, doctors said, came in 1955, when he developed symptoms of anemia. He was admitted to Misericordia Hospital at that time but the exact nature of his illness was not determined then.

His condition eventually was diagnosed as leukemia and in all he received 80 pints of blood in an effort to stem the development of the disease.

Myers was floor leader for Adlai Stevenson at the 1952 Democratic National Convention, working closely with Pittsburgh's Mayor David Lawrence and National Committeeman Jack Arvey of Chicago.

BOY MAIMED PLAYING AT BEATY FIELD

Tragedy overshadowed the Fourth of July aftermath today as two young boys somehow touched off some kind of explosive in the bunker at Beaty Field around noon.

At press time today, Alan Lowe, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lowe, 207 Willoughby street, was having his mangled right hand removed in surgery at Warren General Hospital.

Eddie Vaughan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Vaughan, 2 Myrtle street, was peppered about the head, shoulders and leg by the explosion. He was hospitalized.

Eye witnesses said the two boys were playing in the bunker when the blast occurred. The two were thrown about 15 feet by the blast and then picked themselves up and ran screaming for help.

The bunker had been set up by the Marine Fourth Truck Company in Erie for a simulation.

NO REST FOR THE ENERGETIC JAYCEES

A huge measure of appreciation was due today to Gail Cobb and his hard-working band of Jaycees who made another Fourth of July the satisfying, pleasant event it was. However, the weary will find no rest today, with the circus coming Monday et al., and this evening a work bee is scheduled to begin at the Armory at 7 o'clock. Cots have to be returned to Birdsall Eddy.

Johnsonburg Red Rockets with their red shirts and blue pants.

Color guard winners were Buffalo Drum Corettes, Limestone Black Panthers and Simonette Drum Band.

Another parade standout was the National Guard unit which consisted of the 28th Infantry Division.

happy vacations begin in a Chevy

You'll love to travel in it, because it loves to travel! When you get this Chevrolet out on the road, you'll want to keep going—and so will the whole family.

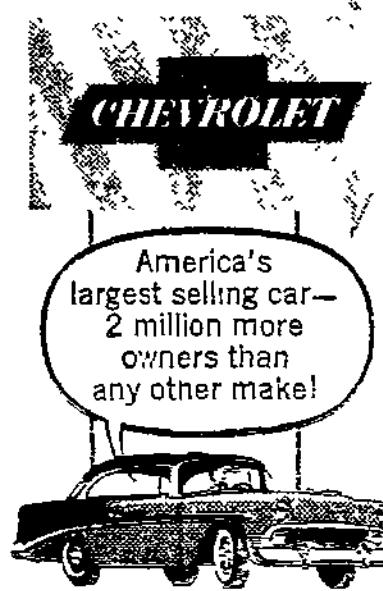

Of course, even in a Chevy the happiest vacations may involve one or two minor problems. Like fidgety small fry who want gallons of water and keep asking if you're almost there. The big things, though, are well taken care of by this roomy Chevrolet's smooth and easy way of going.

The fact is, few cars at any price hold the road with a Chevy's grace. That idea about the best riding cars being great oversized affairs went out with the introduction of Chevrolet's outrigger rear springing and low, precisely balanced chassis design. With horsepower up to 225, the Chevrolet moves out like a whiplash, for safer passing. And with it you've always got that solid feeling of stability.

It's no wonder that many people who used to buy higher priced cars are changing to Chevy! Stop by for a ride.

Plane Dives Into Chautauqua Lake But Pilot Escapes

A Navy Lieutenant crawled out of a single passenger trainer plane after it crashed-landed in Chautauqua Lake at noon Tuesday. The plane later sank and is now under 35 feet of water.

Officials at the sheriff's office in Mayville, N. Y., identified the pilot as Lt. (jg) Barry Hempe, attached to the Oceana, Va., Naval Air Station.

He was on a routine training flight with another plane when he developed engine trouble.

Hempe came down only a few feet above the roof tops in De Wittville, N. Y. The low flying craft frightened some horses in a field near the town.

The Navy Lieutenant got out of the plane before it sank and was pulled into a boat operated by a fisherman, John Pepicelli, of Meadville.

He was not injured.

Frewsburg Man Is Victim of Holiday Accident at Lake

Jamestown, N. Y.—A 31-year-old Frewsburg man, taking his wife and two children to see the Chautauqua Lake fireworks display, was fatally injured Wednesday night when his auto was struck broadside by another car on Route 60 at the Falconer-Stillwater Road intersection. His wife and two children were seriously injured. The fatality, 15th in Chautauqua county this year, marred an otherwise quiet Fourth of July holiday in the area.

Billy Birt, 31, of 102 Lafayette street, Frewsburg, died in WCA Hospital thirty minutes after the 8:30 p. m. crash.

His wife, Vivian, 28, suffered brush burns and shock and was reported in "fair" condition at WCA Hospital.

Roxanne Birt, 5, suffered a skull fracture and was reported in "serious" condition. Her brother, Robert, 9, had a fractured collar bone, scalp laceration and lacerated hand. He was said to be in "fair" condition.

Hospital spokesman said Birt died at 9 p. m., 15 minutes after being admitted. They said hospital records listed cause of death as a fractured skull.

Coroner Frederick E. Mattison of Falconer said early this morning he is withholding a death certificate pending further investigation.

Police said Birt's car hit broadside by an auto driven by Harold Harding, 32, of 102 Barron's street. Harding was headed east on the Falconer-Stillwater Road, passed the 60 intersection stop and hit Birt's auto on the left side at the driver's door. Harding's car continued up the Falconer-Stillwater Road, spun around and came to rest in a ditch, headed west.

Harding was arrested on three charges: passing a stop sign, operating a car on a learner's permit without the supervision of a licensed operator and driving an uninsured vehicle.

Harding was treated at Jamestown General Hospital for a scalp laceration and cut knee. He later was taken to city jail and locked up for the night.

Harding was scheduled to be arraigned before Kiantone Peace Justice Edward Marek at 6:30 p. m. today.

"Little Moe" Visits Times-Mirror

IT'S CIRCUS TIME

Through the courtesy of Howard Barry, one of the advance representatives of the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey circus, and her trainer Ed Healy, patients and employees at the Warren State Hospital, as well as youngsters and staff at the Hoffman Children's Home, on Tuesday, were privileged to witness an impromptu performance by "Little Moe", famous baby elephant used in publicizing the forthcoming appearance of the Greatest Show on Earth which will be in Warren next Monday under the auspices of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

"Little Moe" arrived in Warren about 3:30 Tuesday and after a brief welcome in front of the Times-Mirror office, was whisked off to the State Hospital where 3,000 patients were already assembled. After a parade in front of the stands, she was brought out of the truck and put through her tricks by Healy. From there the outfit journeyed to the Children's Home, where the youngsters were privileged to greet her. Due to lack of time she was not removed from the truck at the Home, since she was scheduled for a television appearance at Erie at 6:30.

Healy explained that Little Moe is three years old, weighs about 1,300 pounds and makes an excellent traveling companion.

Norge Luvison, building representative and Everett Landin, supervising principal, presented a detailed report concerning specifications on the new building's equipment.

A recent visit which these gentlemen made to the equipment procurement office, State Public School Building Authority, Harrisburg, revealed these specifications have been written and are being mimeographed for subsequent distribution to all interested bidders. Advertising for bids is expected immediately and copies may be procured by contacting the office directly.

Mr. Stewart and Mr. Luvison had conferred with Walter Campbell, architect, and Jack Mayer, general contractor, and reported the date for the official pre-final inspection of the new premises will be about August 15. After this inspection is completed, preparations for occupancy will be pressed.

Custodial personnel problems were considered. The need for two male custodians to work in the new building was discussed and a number of applications were considered. Two names for this will be referred to the entire board during its regular July meeting.

It was decided to call a meeting of the group during July to consider employment of two ladies to work as janitors, and it was announced any ladies interested in being an applicant for such work should notify Norge Luvison, Sugarc Grove, of that interest.

Another matter which received considerable attention was that of insurance for the new building. A recommendation concerning procedure will be made to the full board in July, with specific arrangements to be executed at that session.

HATS OFF AGAIN—TO THE JAYCEES!

Residents of this community and the surrounding areas are indebted again to the Junior Chamber of Commerce for another most successful and entertaining Fourth of July observance.

Each year it seems, if such a thing is possible, the program seems to become just a little bit bigger and better than those that have been staged before, and Wednesday's observance was no exception.

Due to painstaking planning and self-sacrificing work that started months ago, everything in connection with the local celebration of the 180th anniversary of the founding of the nation moved with clock-like precision—including the festivities incident to the selecting and crowning of the Queen, the Street Dance, Parade, Drum Corps Competition, Beaty Field program topped with the mammoth Fire Works display and the Grand Finale.

On behalf of residents of the community, the thousands of visitors, all the participants and everyone in general, we say again, as we have been each year since this enterprising organization of young business men took over the sponsoring of the event—a hearty thank you and congratulations, Warren Jaycees!

"LITTERBUGS" OUTLAWED

From the Weekly Newsletter issued by the Pennsylvania Game Commission:

The word "litterbug" is to be included in the new edition of Funk and Wagnalls dictionaries, and other dictionaries are following suit, according to the "Keep America Beautiful" organization. The coined, now official, word really "rates" the individual who engages in the dirty throw-away practice deplored by millions of Americans who naturally like their outdoors unspoiled.

In April of this year many communities in the State of Idaho campaigned during "Don't Be A Litterbug" week to encourage the public to eliminate the refuse nuisance along highways and elsewhere. A growing number of States are acting on the problem in one way or another.

The cover of the May issue of Pennsylvania Game News portrays two bear cubs scrambling to the safe side of a tree trunk to avoid being hit by bottles and cans thrown from a moving auto on a nearby highway. The story behind the cover points out that "Cans, bottles and assorted debris... turn an otherwise beautiful countryside into a nauseating eyesore."

The growing practice of tossing out or dumping debris at any convenient spot caused disgusted persons and organizations to say "There ought to be a law." Well, there is. In Pennsylvania, individuals who insist on being untidy along highways, or who deposit junk or garbage cans on State Game Lands, are promised 'pocketbook education.' Unfortunately, it devolves on enforcement agencies to teach the inconsiderate that such unsightly acts create an unwholesome, unnecessary mess not to be tolerated.

LAUDS FLOOD CONTROL PLAN

Appropriation of $384,000 to draw plans for the proposed Allegheny River flood control dam above Warren, in the opinion of The Franklin News-Herald, "should be a cause for real rejoicing in this section," says The Herald editorial writer.

The Warren dam, when built, will cost 100 million dollars and will add greatly to adequate flood protection of the Allegheny Valley, saving millions each year to towns and cities ordinarily in the sweep of high water.

Its beneficial effects will be felt not only in this immediate section, but by Parker, Kittanning, Ford City, New Kensington, Tarentum and the Pittsburgh district. During the dry season the dam will create a huge reservoir and provide a welcome source of clean, clear water.

The $384,000 thus far appropriated is no pork barrel gift. Congressman Gavin deserves a vote of thanks for his determination and persistence in getting the appropriation through.

'No Democrat' Insists
Ex-Administrator McLeaishBY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

Now that another holiday has passed it is interesting to remind that under legislation backed by the National Association of Travel Organizations, everyone would be enjoying a three-day holiday this weekend, instead of resting up today after Wednesday's celebration.

As William C. Smith says in an article in the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, under the Association's Monday Holiday Plan, Americans would enjoy five long week-ends a year, every year. With Washington's Birthday, Memorial Day and the Fourth of July all falling on Wednesday this year, there has been an added drive to put over the plan. New Jersey soon is expected to join Massachusetts in passing legislation which would change the holidays when enough Legislatures have acted similarly.

Here is how the holiday set-up would be: 1—Independence Day would be the first Monday in July.

2—Labor Day would stay as it is now—the first Monday in September.

3—Thanksgiving Day would be the fourth Monday in November.

4—President's Day would be observed on the third Monday in February.

5—Memorial Day would be the last Monday in May.

Owners of resorts and travel attractions recently reported to the association that their business for the week in which Memorial Day fell took a real drubbing this year.

Revenue of one Middle West park concessionaire was down 64 per cent for the last Sunday in May under a year ago. A New York State sightseeing attraction reported its business for the last days of May last year was 304 per cent over the same period this year.

A recent study in Vermont showed holiday traffic deaths are higher when the holidays occur in the middle of the week than at either end. People try to drive too far, too fast. They cover both legs of a trip in one day. There is a Monday Holiday bill before almost every Legislature, or will be soon. If you would like to have five long weekend a year, the National Association of Travel Organizations suggests one way to bring it about: Let your representative in your state Legislature know how you feel.

RULES: Using the following 16 letters in the blank squares below how many words can you form either vertically or horizontally? Use same word only once and no plurals please. When words contain less than 5 letters and are in same line—i. e., "TOICE" scoring is 1 pt. for word "TO" and 3 pts. for word "ICE." MAXIMUM NUMBER OF POINTS PER LINE IS FIVE. To assist you, we have inserted a few clues, which include additional letters.

RECOMMENDATION: It now develops, was made by Jack Porter, Texas state chairman for the GOP and patronage boss. McLeaish replaced Dillard Lasseter, Georgia Democrat who had been head of FHA for the previous eight years.

Farmers Home Administration is a New Deal-born credit agency intended to help small farmers. It also administers the disaster relief program. It is government paternalism at its best or worst, depending on how you look at it.

The question arises as to why a man who thought there was too much paternalism in government should be hired for this particular job.

The position of FHA administrator is filled by presidential appointment. The White House does not release full information as to who sponsors, who clears and what congressmen approve or disapprove an appointee.

Wives Should Add 'Like'
To Marital Vocabulary

SURE, you love your husband and you often tell him so. But do you ever let him know you LIKE him?

A man needs to know that he is loved, but he also needs to know that the woman to whom he has given his name wears it proudly because she also likes and admires him.

A wife can make a husband feel that she likes and respects him as a man in hundreds of small ways.

She does it when she asks his advice about something that is important to her. And then listens to what he has to say, instead of talking him down.

She shows her liking for him when she pays attention to his likes and dislikes, not because she is trying to be a model wife but because what he thinks counts with her.

She shows her respect for her husband by respecting his job and the demands it makes on his time and energy and the demands it occasionally makes on her.

She makes him feel liked when she kids him out of a black mood instead of sulking, too.

MORE WAYS TO SHOW HER LIKING

SHE makes him feel he is important as a person when she occasionally quotes something he has said in a manner that shows she was impressed by it.

She makes him feel she likes his company better than anyone else's when she puts herself out to go some place he wants her to go.

She can even make him feel liked by the tone of her voice when she says to someone, "I want you to know my husband."

The ways of making a husband feel liked as well as loved are endless. The only trick is to really like your husband and not be afraid to let him know it every day of your married life.

TODAY is pay day for all who have classified ads.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 2:00 p.m. by Dr. Arthur Colley, with wedding music by George A. Johnson, organist, and Mrs. Herman Heubach, vocalist.

Wearing imported taffeta with a small train, the bride was given in marriage by her father. The gown featured a bateau neckline outlined with the same lace repeated at the waistline, and a pearl-embroidered cap held her fingertip veil of illusion net. Her cascade bouquet was fashioned of rosebuds.

Gowned in powder blue silk organdy over taffeta, and wearing blue lace picture hats, attendants were Maxine Boyd and JoAnne Richards, Warren; Maegan Edmiston Smith, Port Allegany; and Patricia Kepel, Corry.

Charles Mulvin, Sandusky, O., was best man; ushers were Donald Mulvin and Roy E. Elderkin, Titusville; John W. Peake, Pittsburgh.

Former Resident Bride

Miss Suzanne Elizabeth Dorsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. Dorsey, former Warren residents now living in Baltimore, Md., became the bride of John V. Batista, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred V. Batista, Pawtucket, R.I., June 30 in a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. G. Gladstone Whitehurst and the Rev. Riley in St. Luke's Methodist church, Woodlawn, Md. Wedding music was provided by Miss Mary Lee Younger, organist, and Mrs. Meta Justice Smith, vocalist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of lace and nylon tulle over taffeta, fashioned with long, tapering sleeves and scoop neckline in a fitted bodice. The bouffant skirt had wide inserts of lace with pleated tulle, and fell into a circular chapel train. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a headpiece of matching lace, with knife-pleated tulle embroidered with pearls, and she carried a white Bible with white orchid and lilies of the valley.

Miss Mary Lou Dorsey was maid of honor for her sister; other attendants were Miss Betty Ann Bower, Salisbury, Md.; Miss Patricia Hamersly, Miss Carol Ann Coleman, Baltimore; Mrs. James R. Whitehurst, Bel Air, Md.; with Miss Suzanne Schaeffer as flower girl. The maid of honor wore floor length white nylon velvet over yellow taffeta, with yellow taffeta sash. The others were similarly gowned in blue and all carried casades of matching delphinium. Joseph Rausch, Merchantville, N.J., served as best man; ushers were R. Peter Urquhart, Stevenson, Md.; James R. Whitehurst, Bel Air; R. Eugene Hedcock, Takoma Park, Md.; ring bearer was Master David Eugene Batista, Indianapolis, Ind.

The bride's mother wore a champagne color sheath-type dress, with matching accessories, and Mrs. Batista chose blue alencon lace and silk taffeta, with contrasting accessories.

A reception followed in the church social rooms, after which the couple left for a honeymoon in the Poconos.

Marries Flight Trainee

Nancy Jean Norling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sidney Norling of 10 Riverside Drive, Wilmington, Del., became the bride of Ensign Karl Theodore Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Willard Smith, 411 East street, Warren, on June 30 in Wilmington's Westminster Presbyterian church. The ceremony was performed at 2:30 p.m. by Dr. John W. Christie, with violin music by the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Harry Cochran of Arlington, Va., with John Thoms at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Jean R. Cornthwaite, of Wilmington, as maid of honor; Mrs. Willard P. Smith of Jamestown, N.Y., sister of the bridegroom, and Marion D. Moller, Pittsburgh, bridesmaids; and Janet D. Seely, Kansas City, Mo., junior bridesmaid for her cousin.

The bride wore imported chantilly lace and silk taffeta in old ivory, and carried a cascade arrangement of stephanotis and small white asters, centered with a purple-throated white orchid. The lace bodice of her gown had an off-the-shoulder neckline, long sleeves, and fitted, long torso gathered to a bouffant skirt with large double puff which ended in a cathedral train. A profile half-hat of matching lace, appliqued with pearls, held her full length veil of French illusion on which was repeated the pearl trim.

Attendants were all gowned alike in organdy ballerinas of soft orchid, with cummerbunds in a deeper shade. Their old fashioned hats had nose veils sprinkled with rhinestones, and they carried asters in shades of pale lavender and purple.

Willard P. Smith, Jamestown, served his brother as best man; ushers were his brother-in-law, Harry Cochran of Arlington; the bride's brother, Robert D. Norling, and Edward Gearhart, Wilmington; Paul B. Hood, Washington D.C.

Wearing phalaenopsis orchids and white stephanotis, the bride's mother was in azure blue taffeta and lace with iridescent sequin trim, and matching accessories. Mrs. Smith chose beige silk lace and accessories in the same shade.

The reception following the ceremony was held at the duPont Country Club in Wilmington.

Both graduates of Pennsylvania State University, the young people will make their home at Pensacola, Fla., where Ensign Smith is undergoing flight training.

Metro Teconchuk Enjoy Open House For Anniversary

Youngsville—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Metro Teconchuk at Pittsfield was the scene of a happy gathering July 1, when 128 relatives and friends gathered to help them celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary. The affair was arranged by their nieces, Barbara and Kathleen Bobelak, Warren RD 2.

The table was decorated with a beautiful centerpiece of pink roses, blue and white delphiniums, and crystal candlesticks held silver and white candles. On a separate table was the four-tiered wedding cake, topped with a silver bell and the numeral "25".

Mrs. Teconchuk was lovely in a white dacron gown with a lacy butterfly motif, and a corsage of her favorite flowers, red sweet heart roses.

Tea and coffee were poured by Mrs. Mae Johnson and Mrs. Bonita Bobelak, Warren, and Catherine Vicander, Youngsville. Aides were Mrs. Ann Bobelak and Mrs. Bernece Bobelak, Warren; Mrs. Marian Blythe, Erie, and Mrs. Mary Glotz, Chandlers Valley. Joan Teconchuk was in charge of the guest book; the cake was cut by Mrs. Clara Gruttaria, who had been flower girl at the wedding.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gordon, Buffalo.

Census Tells on the Ladies

Farm Wives Bring Home the Bacon

BY ALICIA HART

NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—This may come as a shock to income-conscious bachelors, but America's unmarried girls have slacked off their pace as wage-earners.

At the same time, farm wives have been grabbing jobs at a faster rate than city wives.

These are some of the most revealing statistics about today's working woman to come out of a recent review of 1955 census data.

A significant drop from 51 per cent in 1948 to 46 per cent in 1955 has taken place in the proportion of single girls in the labor force.

"The decline was greatest among young women 18 to 24 years old, a fact that may tie in with the increased school enrollments for this age group," says one analyst.

As relatively fewer single women head for work each morning, more and more wives are helping to bring home the bacon. The census shows that over 10 million of them are now employed. They represent a fourth of the nation's housewives.

Most interesting to experts, however, is the fact that farm wives are becoming wage earners more rapidly than town or city wives.

Back in 1950 only 17 per cent of the country's farm wives had jobs. Now the percentage is upped to 26, according to the census.

"Some of these farm wives are employed in farm work," says an Agriculture Department spokesman, "but opportunities for outside earnings have increased in recent years as work of various kinds became available to them and as transportation from the farm became easier."

A contributing reason, it seems, for the upswing of working farm wives is the decline in farm prices. This economic squeeze has made it necessary for a number of women to supplement the family budget.

These outside jobs have given farm families' incomes a big financial boost. The median income of farm families was $3,125 in 1954, as compared to $1,955 prior to the time that the farm wife was employed.

This means, according to Uncle Sam's percentage wizards, that the farm family with a working wife had a median income 60 per cent larger than the family in which the wife did not pick up a pay check.

The overall employment picture for women, married and single, is breaking all records. Mrs. Alice K. Leopold, assistant to the secretary of labor for women's affairs, reports that the employment of women averaged 20 million during 1955.

That's a million above the peak years of 1943-45 during World War II. Now there are women reported to be in every one of the 446 occupations listed by the Labor Department.

A growing number of girls are making strides in such professions as medicine, chemistry, theology, law, accounting and engineering. Studies do indicate, however, that single women, particularly those over 35 years of age, are more likely to be working in the professions.

Of the employed single girls over 35, professional jobs were held by 24 per cent as against 10 per cent of married working women in this age group.

Pleasing Friend Hubby Has Its Own Rewards

"WHY should any self-respecting woman spend her life trying to please a man?" a wife (probably a not too-happy one) wants to know the answer.

The answer to that one is easy. Because it's so much fun.

Dress to please a man and you're rewarded with compliments that make you feel young, no matter what your age.

Cook to please a man and you'll almost believe him when he tells you nobody—but NOBODY—can broil a steak or bake an apple pie to touch yours.

Give a man a little subtle but not too subtle, admiration and it doesn't end with his being pleased with himself. It will spread out until he is pleased with what he has accomplished and pleased with you for having the good sense to recognize how smart he really is.

Go along with a man for a day of fishing not because fishing is your favorite pastime but because you aim to please. Before the day is over you'll be having just as good a time as he has.

RIDE OUT THE STORM

MEET a man's grouch with gaiety or his anger with calm and, when the crisis is over, enjoy the peaceful atmosphere that you, yourself, created.

Let the man you married be head man and see if it isn't more fun than trying to run the whole show yourself.

Listen attentively when a man talks and see if you don't feel more charming than when you do all the talking. You should, because you WILL be more charming to him.

Let a man help you. Lean on him a little and see if you aren't happier than any self-sufficient woman could possibly be.

It's so very simple. Any woman who knows how to please a man can't help but be pleased with herself.

COMMENCEMENT AT WARREN STATE HOSPITAL

Warren State Hospital has issued invitations to commencement exercises for the Class of 1956 psychiatric technicians, to be held at 4:00 p. m. Friday, July 3, in the Hospital Chapel.

Class of 1911 Has 45th Anniversary

A delightful and most enjoyable evening was spent in the YWCA activities building Saturday evening, June 30, by members of the Class of 1911 of Warren High School.

It has been 45 years since this group graduated from high school and all enjoyed meeting old friends and reliving their high school days.

It is really unique that a high school class has been so loyal and has carried such deep friendships all these years.

The banquet was served at six o'clock at a table beautifully decorated with yellow mums and purple asters, which carried out the class colors of purple and gold.

A beautiful menu-program, with the class flower, the iris, hand painted in purple and gold was at each place to enhance the festive theme.

At the close of the dinner, the toastmaster, Edward Teadaic, greeted class members and guests.

During the program, members answered roll call, telling what has happened in their lives during the five years since the last reunion.

Old favorite songs were sung and enjoyed.

Members of the class from out of town came from New York state, Ohio, Kentucky, North Carolina, and different places in Pennsylvania.

After enjoying a very pleasant evening in the YWCA parlors, members closed the 45th reunion by singing "Auld Lang Syne" and expressing the hope that all may meet again in 1961 for the golden anniversary.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM ANDERSON

Annette Lorraine Wineriter, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis L. Wineriter, 613 Pennsylvania Avenue, east, became the bride of William Nelson Anderson, son of Mrs. Leonard W. Woods, 409 Laurel street, on June 30 in Grace Methodist church.

The Rev. C. W. Baldwin officiated for the double ring ceremony under the glow of tapers from two large candelabra, with palms and summer flowers used in an artistic setting. Prior to the ceremony, there was a half-hour of wedding music by Mrs. Louella Hammerbeck, vocalist, and J. Richard Pratt, organist. Mrs. Hammerbeck sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because", also "The Lord's Prayer."

Approaching the altar on the arm of her father, the bride wore a ballerina gown of chantilly lace over nylon net and satin, fashioned with basque bodice embroidered with seed pearls and sequins and having long, tapering sleeves. Her full skirt ended in a scalloped hemline. Her fingertip veil fell from a juliet cap of the same lace, also decorated with seed pearls and sequins. She carried a colonial bouquet of stephanotis, centered with an orchid, and her pearls were the bridegroom's gift.

The maid of honor, Joanne Carlson, wore pink nylon chiffon with attached stole, the gathered bodice sprinkled with white flower appliques. Her hat was of lilles of the valley, short gloves matched her gown, and her bouquet was of aqua daisies. The bridesmaid, Gayle Barton of Corry, was similarly attired in blue and carried pink daisies. Flower girl for her cousin, Jacqueline Johnston of North Warren, wore pink taffeta and nylon net, tiny hat of flowers and nylon net, and carried aqua daisies.

Mr. Samuelson's best man was Samuel Denardi; ushers were David Woods and Tom Wineriter, brother of the bridegroom and cousin of the bride, respectively.

Wearing carnation corsages, Mrs. Wineriter was in blue with white accessories. Mrs. Woods chose an all-pink ensemble.

The reception followed in the church parlors, where the bride's

Bands for The Watch

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

WATCHBANDS to go with that graduation watch are available in great variety. Girls who like to have really co-ordinated outfit will want to check on the jewelry counters for watchbands for informal, dressed-up and sports occasions.

Watchbands this summer come in platinum, karat gold, gold-filled and stainless steel metals. Styles are tailored or gem-decorated. Some are decorated with leather, mesh panels or faceted links.

Expansion bands come in styles that stretch all the way around, or from endpiece to endpiece. Others have firm endpieces with the expansion panel in between. Others adjust under the firm endpiece.

Popular with teen-agers are expansion bracelets with panels on the back. One kind takes engraving, another comes open to show a photograph.

Girls such as nurses who need big watches for their work can dress them up with fancy bands for evening.

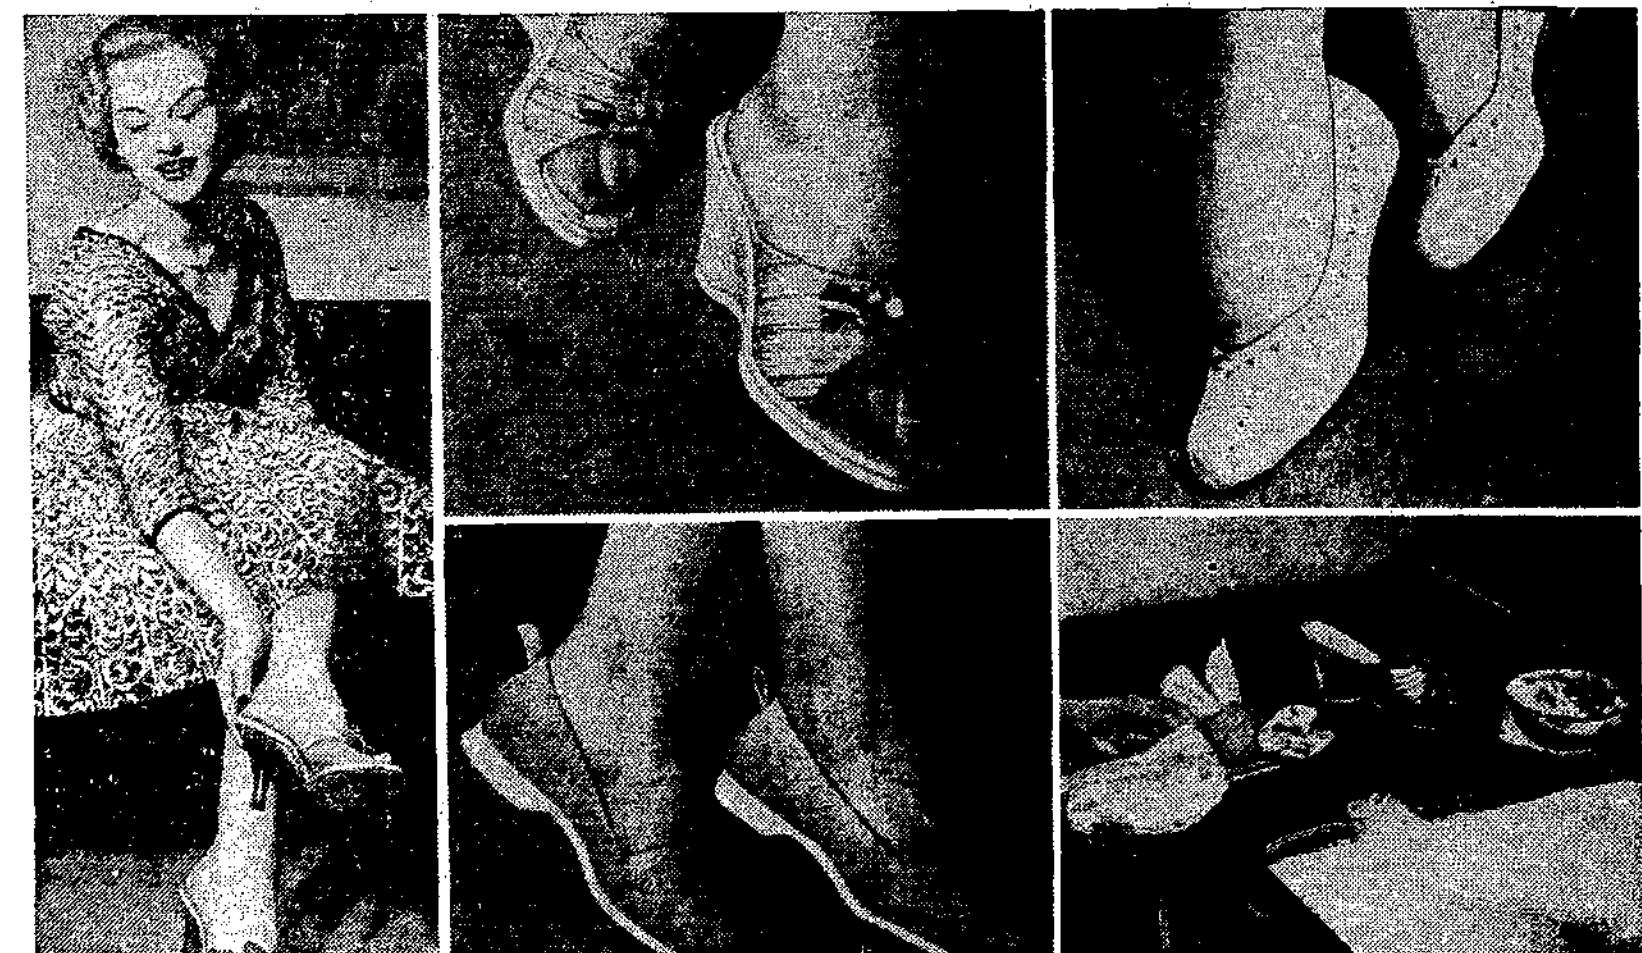

For those who like leather bands, they come in all colors—from pale shiny pastels to black suede. Plastic bands are available too, but most women find them very hot in summer.

A watch received for graduation last year is certainly due for a new band and a cleaning by now.

Fabric Footwear Can Be Washed

Fancy shoes for summer are as easy to care for as they are pretty. For a big evening out (left) this young lady chooses butterfly-tipped mules of transparent plastic. Summer's favorite, straw, appears in cork-heeled wedges (top center), for beach wear. Cool poplin (top right) is used for flat-heeled pumps for around the house. Play shoes (bottom center) are of fabric with rubber soles. Shoes stay clean with the help of thick suds and a sponge. Cleansing (bottom right) should be done before soil works in. Make sure that shoes are washable before immersing them, however.

BY ALICIA HART, NEA Beauty Editor

October know how hot and uncomfortable dusty shoe tops look. Those who live in a city know that shoes inevitably get dirty on the streets in summer and that they wreck the looks of a clean, crisp costume.

Clothes, too, are this way. A crisp, clean, freshly pressed dress looks cool, even if the wearer feels as though she were wilting.

In shoes, this is particularly applicable. Those who live in areas where the dust rolls in in July and doesn't depart until completely unless it's labeled washable.

Washable shoes come in sailcloth, plastic simulated straw, vinyl plastic, rubberized cloth and terrycloth. Colors are as varied as one could wish in patterns that include stripes, polka dots, two-tones.

Keeping these shoes clean is a matter of moving quickly when they get soiled. It's easier to get out a small smudge than to work on the whole shoe. Cleaning should be done with suds and a brush. Don't immerse the shoe

(18th Installment)

White Woman Rapids is well within the city limits of Salamanca. The river does a 90 degree turn, frothed in a lather of wave and foam, climbs several feet rapidly, then does a reverse 90. I fought in this elbow 15 minutes, sometimes straining for inches, and a great number of persons were attracted by the struggle. In truth, it seemed for moments I could not win. Paul H. Schwab was waiting above the rapids in his unique airplane propeller-pontoon boat, and when I emerged, he escorted me through the local harbor.

The crowd on both shores seemed enormous, and the sidewalk of the Salamanca highway bridge was lined with people. I did not realize at the moment that this was Saturday, and noon, and everyone was on the streets anyhow. P. T. Barnum could not have staged a more timely arrival.

Bob looked around to his attractive wife, and said to her in sheer ecstasy, "He's got our freight!"

Well, this was excusable, for he had waited patiently two years for the moment. There, stowed in the hatch, was a solitary cardboard cylindrical container, maybe 15 inches diameter by three feet high, weighing 15 pounds and containing a chrome diesel cylinder liner. Bob Taylor, in behalf of the Van der Horst people, sent it to me in Sewickley with instructions to deliver it by river to Olean. I got it up to Parker Falls on the first attempt; to Oil City on the second try. The poor thing was getting dog-eared by that time, and I wrote Bob urging him to forget the whole idea. His epic response: "Keep the shipment; we have faith you will deliver." Now there was a real ray of hope it might arrive.

Bob Taylor and his wife cooperated in finding a good mooring for the Lady Grace and got me back to my baggage in Salamanca. Other important matters had been going on in Salamanca meanwhile. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Putnam had driven up from Warren late in the afternoon with full expectation of witnessing the Lady Grace's passage at Bucktooth, White woman, and the Hendrik Hudson voyage through the new north-west passage at Salamanca Island. Hence Putty had parked his wife at the hotel and had explored downstream looking for me, and was vastly elated to learn I was almost to destination. Bob Taylor was host to a welcome dinner party that evening, after which he went home to Olean and the Putnams returned to Warren.

Yet it was photographer Woodworth who had scouted the solution. He showed me how the Allegany River (using the local spelling) had prepared for my convenience, without human aid or interference, a special channel. Dame Allegany had accomplished a unique stunt. She had worked a chute through the island above the pipe line waterfall, spilling it into the back channel. All I had to do was steer up the back channel, enter this new chute, climb it, and come out in the main channel above all the trouble. It worked slick as goose grease. At 12:25 p.m., the Lady Grace was well upriver above Salamanca, high on her way to Olean, never having landed at all. The Salamanca newspaper made a front-page spread of the event. In a supreme misjudgement of the outcome of this stunt, I had left my suitcase and other personal belongings in the Hotel Dudley, Salamanca, having scant faith that the trick would be so easily and quickly done.

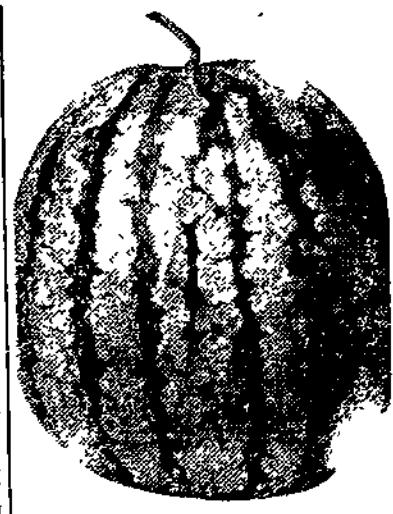

The weatherman was not so cooperative, and the afternoon tapered into wind gusts, rain, and a temperature drop to 38. I huddled on the thwart wrapped in a yellow slicker eating Fig Newtons, breezing along the last 21 miles, knowing full well from past experience that the Allegany from Salamanca to Olean is a dream highway on this river stage, with-

Lander

Lander — Thirteen members of Lander Boy Scout Club attended the regular gathering at the home of Mrs. Charles Swanson. A bountiful dinner was served and Mrs. George Rapp, honored guest, was presented a purse of money and gifts from her secret sister. Mrs. Arthur Stanton will be hostess to the group in July.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dinsmoor and daughter, Nancy, of Fort Deposit, Md., have been recent callers of Mrs. Cecile Cowles.

Home Garden Melons Need Lots of Food, Water

Watermelons contain less water than asparagus or lettuce.

It is a proud home gardener who can feast his friends on sweet muskmelons or water melons grown in his own garden. Melons and squash are usually the last vegetables sown in the spring, as they require warm weather from start to finish. A light, well drained soil, lots of water and more plant food than you are accustomed to use on other vegetables pay off especially well with the melons. The vines of squash and muskmelons can be grown as climbers, provided large fruits are supported. A mesh bag such as often used for fruits in supermarkets provides a good support.

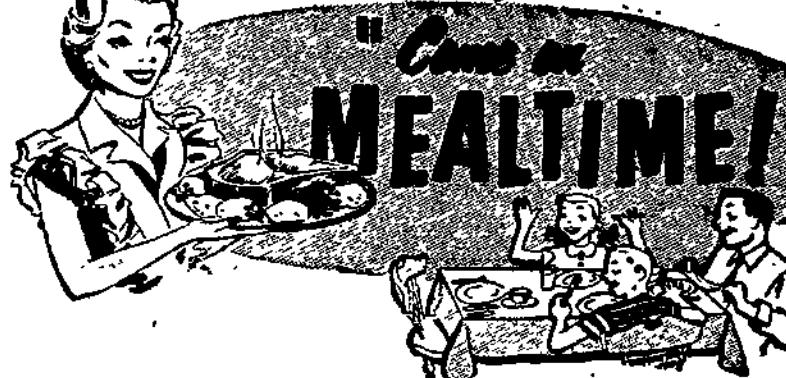

With melons the time required from seed sowing to maturity will determine the variety you sow. Muskmelons take from 80 to 100 days, watermelons from 75 to 100 days. Seed cannot be sown until at least a week after the frost-proof date when the ground is thoroughly warm. If nights continue cold it may be desirable to protect seedlings plants with waxed paper tents at first.

Both muskmelons and water melons are usually grown in hills, which may be as close together as three feet each way, in small gardens. Such close spacing is likely to reduce the size of the fruits, and more room should be given where possible.

Heavy fertilizing pays well. As much as a pint of balanced plant food may be mixed well with the soil beneath each hill several days before the seed is planted. Or use a shovel of well rotted manure, and half a pint of plant food. Sow ten seeds to the hill and thin out to the two strongest plants that develop.

Do not harvest watermelons or muskmelons until they are ripe, as they improve in flavor very little after they are picked. It takes some study to determine when a watermelon is ripe, with-

Wheat Quota Vote
Scheduled to Come
Up Friday, July 20

Friday, July 20, is the date when growers will determine how they want to market their 1957 wheat crop. Edward J. Fleming, Sr., Chairman of the Pennsylvania Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, reminded farmers today.

Farmers who will harvest more than 15 acres of wheat as grain on a farm in 1957 are eligible to cast ballots in the wheat quota referendum. Polling places will be set up in convenient locations in the county, and wheat growers will be notified where they may vote.

A two-thirds favorable vote will mean that marketing quotas and penalties on excess wheat will be in effect for the 1957 wheat crop. Under quotas, too, price support to growers in the commercial area who comply with their wheat acreage allotments will be at the full level available—between 75 and 90 percent of parity.

If more than one-third of the growers voting disapprove quotas, the quotas will not be in effect, and the available price support on the 1957 wheat crop to those who comply with farm wheat acreage allotments will be at a level of 50 percent of parity.

When a marketing quota program is in effect, the excess wheat of a grower who does not comply with his farm wheat acreage allotment and who has more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest as grain on the farm will be subject to a marketing quota penalty. This penalty will be equal to 45 percent of the May 1, 1957 parity price for wheat.

Chairman Fleming emphasized that the vote is on wheat marketing quotas and not wheat allotments. Whether or not the vote is favorable on the quotas, acreage allotments will be in effect for the 1957 wheat crop.

Marketing quotas have been approved by growers voting in referendums for the past three wheat crops. Last year, 77.3 percent of the growers voting favored quotas for the 1956 crop.

GARLAND

GARLAND—Omitted in an earlier account of the awards presentation at the Presbyterian church were names of the following children who received bars for one-year perfect attendance: Suine, Barbara and Rosemary Dey, Lynn, George and Judy Becker, Kathryn Taber, David Coleman, and Donna Kay Frampton.

Accompanying the Garland fire truck to Dempseyville for the parade were Chief William Marino, Keith "Funk" Parker (driving), Fred Bugbee, Bob Lanning, and Jim Black. Chief Marino, Parker, Bugbee, Lanning, Henry Stec and Gene Clancy manned the equipment in the Tionesta parade.

Friends will be glad to learn that Mr. and Mrs. John Radecik have purchased a new ranch style home in Puento, Calif., where he has secured employment. They are near the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Eclund, formerly of Corry and well known in this area.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Sandrock, Donna and Homer Frampton, Mrs. James Graham, Mrs. Richard Dahlstrom, Mrs. Russell Parker, Mrs. Fred Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. George Fish, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Briggs attended a farewell tureen supper for Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Ross at their home in Youngsville. They are leaving for a new home in Blooming Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Seltzer, with Mrs. Arthur Chapman of Spring Creek RD, spent several days in Danville with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson, former Garland residents.

Mirrored in Our Times

First things first—an excellent motto—so we'll get right into the most important note in our weekly column! In observing trends, we often find ourselves right in the middle, and although we try to keep up with things, it's possible to miss the boat between writings. After holding forth—and most enthusiastically—about the appearance of walking shorts (and they are best sellers, you know), one of our most favorite people and a top golfer crossed the horizon in knickers the other day! Tailor-made and handsome—on him they look good! It only takes one to start a new (or re-newed) fashion note. From here on in, anything can happen.

Has this ever happened to you? You have an urge to brush the white dandruff scales from a coat collar or dark dress—or do you suffer from dandruff and suddenly having somebody brush you off? This frequently happens and it's a discouraging thing. Many remedies have been created for men with dandruff—others for women afflicted by itching scalp or dandruff (and plenty of folks have trouble with the stubborn condition). But don't claim that you can't help it—cause you can!

NOW—at The Warren Drug Store—SEBB, an anti-seborrheic preparation, Max Factor's new, scientific formula for dandruff and itchy scalp. Effective and pleasant to use; quick and easy application; $1.50 (no excise tax) and it's for both men and women!

We've been shopping around for two weeks now and with the big Fourth of July over and done with, we plan to introduce some new items and places of business to our shopping column. If you read the Mirror won't you mention the fact to our advertisers?—and if you have any contributions, why not send them in?

Sincere congratulations to William Fuellhart upon receipt of the coveted Benjamin Rush award. Along with the other Warrentines to receive it Mr. Fuellhart is justly deserving. Having been at the helm of Civil Defense during the big emergencies, the Civil Defense Director has also been very much on the job trying to awaken the country people to the real need for knowing what to do should this country find itself at war. If the entire citizenry were half as alert as the Civil Defense workers, anything could happen—and we'd be ready to cope with it.

It's good news to many that State Trooper Paul Dell (formerly of the Warren sub-station) has been discharged from the hospital following injuries received in an accident sometime ago. Paul, transferred to Lawrence Park in Erie, is recuperating at his Roy street home with wife, Bernice, and two small daughters.

Alphonse DeJonghe, chimpanzee trainer extraordinaire, oversees a tentful of the scampering little apes when he presents three acts at the same time in the Ringling Bros and Barnum & Bailey Big Top.

Alphonse himself appears in the center ring with a group of five chimps which play musical instruments, dance, execute skillful acrobatics and play leap frog.

His brother Vic is in Ring three with another group which fly through the air with an ease and dexterity that would put human acrobats to shame, and Ed Williams at the same time is in Ring one with a third group of DeJonghe's chimps which display skill in a parallel bar act.

Offstage the little apes display almost human traits. They can eat with knives forks and spoons and help dress themselves when they are getting ready for their act.

All laugh when they are happy and cry when repudiated just as do human children. They understand commands in French, English and two small daughters lish and the language of the Congo, their original home.

DeJonghe gave each of his chimps a training course which covered about a year. He first taught them to walk erect and then instructed them in the manner in which to wear their costumes. The apes then learned to eat like humans.

For breakfast the little apes have tea with sugar, bread and marmalade, a banana and an orange. At noon they eat a vegetable mixture containing carrots, celery and cabbage, with bananas and grapefruit for dessert. Each also has a glass of milk.

After the afternoon performance each receives two bananas and an orange and when the evening show has been completed they repeat the noon meal.

Doors to the big show open at 1 and 7 p.m. with performances in the greatly-enlarged, air-ventilated Big Top scheduled for 2:15 and 8:15 p.m.

RUSSELL

Russell—Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swanson have been Mr. and Mrs. Perry Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Swanson and family, Jamestown.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Dase and Mr. and Mrs. Lavern Durkin for a pleasant Sunday picnic were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Carlson and family, Buffalo; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Kidder and son, of Miami, Fla.; Mary Johnson, Sugar Grove; Wanda and Sally Brew, Jamestown.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Conrad and family, Lansdowne, Pa., arrived at the Ray Thompson home to attend the Boyd-Mulvin wedding in Warren. Mr. Conrad has returned home, but the others will remain for a month's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Gustafson, Los Angeles, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Siegfried Gustafson, St. Louis, Mo., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Gustafson. Their host is recovering from a broken shoulder received while working in the cemetery.

Clarence Aleckley and Larry Park, with a group from Warren, are enjoying a fishing trip in Canada.

REASON

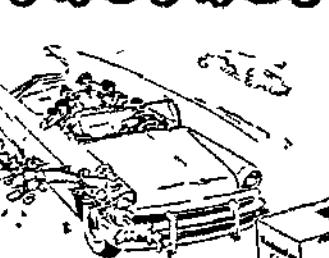

Graham flour will not keep as long as white flour, because graham flour is a whole wheat flour and contains the wheat germ, which contains fat, and fat will become rancid in time.

Soybean production in the United States during 1954 was the greatest on record, 342,785,000 bushels.

— Big Star-Spangled Party for Uncle Sam's 180th Birthday —

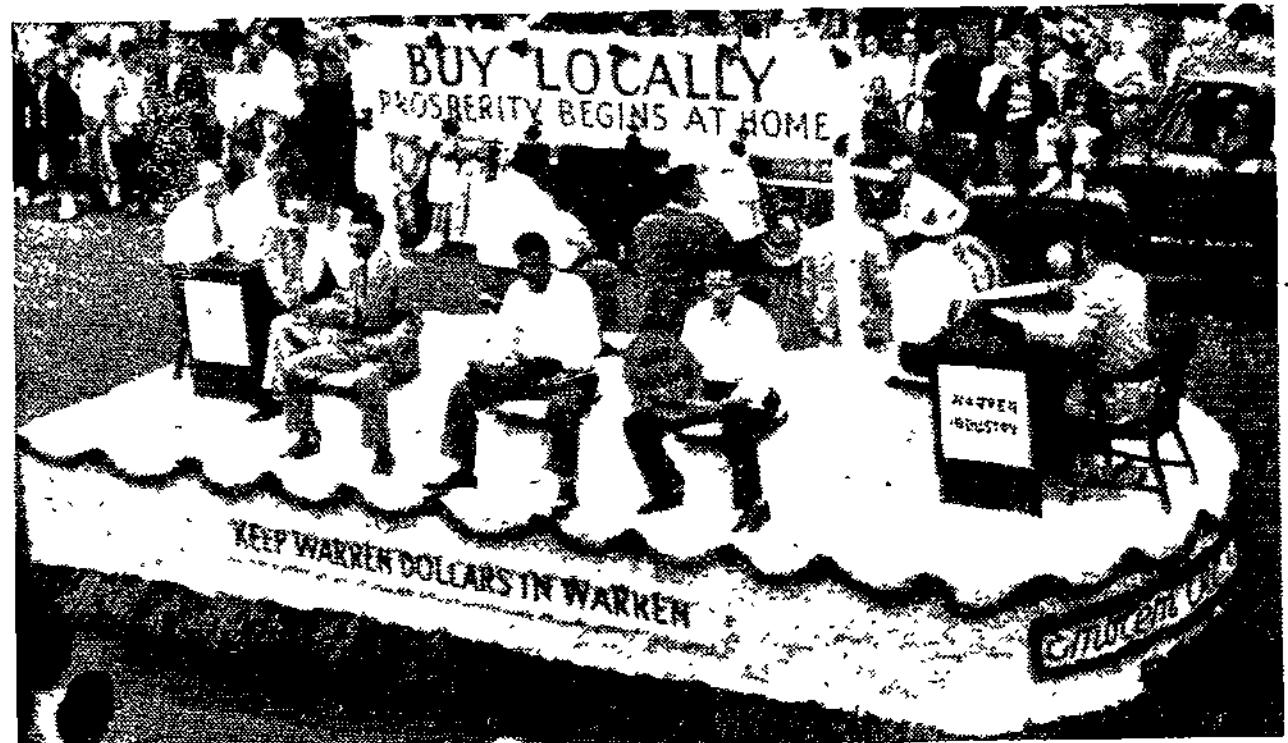

HUP, TWO, THREE, FOUR! — Nothing like a fast-stepping military organization to liven up a parade . . . GRRRR! Nobody had this lion by the tail, he stood there meek as a lamb. Mascot of the Lions Club, this lion was a friendly animal . . . SPIRIT OF '76, 180 years later, and Old Glory, too. This Sugar Grove entry was popular with viewers of the parade.

DOLLARS MAKE SENSE — The Circulating dollar made the rounds from industry to business and back again . . . "HEY, POP," said a small boy's voice "That's what

I want for Christmas! This 25-ton tank was one of the more awe-inspiring sights . . . CHIEF CORNPLANTER would have been amazed, and pleased, if he could have seen this group from Chief Cornplanter Post of Warren.

MAJORETTEs headed almost every musical unit, and there were lots of pretty girls in the line of march . . . THIS FARMYARD EXHIBIT was a favorite with the kids along the parade route, and was an entry of the Hilltop 4-H Club of Scandia . . . IT WAS A RED, WHITE AND BLUE spectacle and this snappy group added color to the scene.

CANADIAN NEIGHBORS — The Simcoe Boys Scout Troop of Simcoe, Ont., Canada, were welcome visitors here for the Fourth . . . LET FREEDOM RING! Not the Liberty Bell of Philadelphia, but just as good . . . THE VIKINGS, of Jamestown, N. Y., proved popular with cheering throngs, receiving a great deal of applause.

UGH! UGH! HEAP CUTE INJUN GALS — These Indian Bonnettes stole the show with their costumes, precision and routines . . . RED CROSS REMINDER — For those whore... who... who... who... cross with this beautiful float . . . SWING THE GIRL WITH THE HOLE IN HER STOCKING — Street dance Tuesday evening, under the stars at Nu-Way Plaza, was well attended. All pictures on this page by Sparky Saylor.

CELEBRATION ECHOES!

Hats off to today to the Junior Chamber of Commerce for another Grand and Glorious Independence Day Celebration!

Excepting for a few lapses on the part of the Weatherman every thing seemed to go off according to schedule, and what is more important—without incident or serious accident.

The morning clicked like clock-work—a group of half dozen committee workers and twice as many interested early-morning spectators were at War Memorial Field for the shooting of the Morning Salutes at six o'clock by the veteran assistant to the Pyrotechnics committee, Pete Massa. And as usual the ceremony brought a few good-natured objections on the part of a few citizens generally, but more particularly folks who reside in homes adjacent to the Field.

The next big event on the agenda was the Breakfast meeting of the Celebration Committee at the Penn Restaurant in Times Square. By actual count there were between 35 and 40—an excellent showing, and demonstrating that the Jaycees were still filled with enthusiasm in spite of their weeks of arduous work and planning.

Activities started early at the American Legion Home, Beatty Building and the State Armory. Around nine o'clock committee members and parade aides started gathering at the Legion and by 10:30 there appeared no doubt that the parade was being formed to move on time, again, which is traditional with the Jaycees.

It was the greatest military show ever to traverse the streets of the borough and the 28th Infantry Band, along with the 3rd Battalion of the 112th Infantry, Battery A, 229th Field Artillery, Army Light Guns and trucks received the big share of applause they deserved.

Members of the Boy Scout Trumpet Band from Simcoe, Ontario, Canada, and the adults who accompanied them drew a big hand all along the parade route. The boys, who were in the Fourth Division, enjoyed reviewing the parade with the committee and aides in Third avenue, just off Conewango, and appeared unanimous in the opinion that it was the greatest they had ever witnessed.

The Celebration Breakfast at the Penn Restaurant was sort of a cut and dried affair until about 8:30 o'clock when Queen Betty Ann and her court arrived in all their finery. From then on the affair seemed to take on a new interest.

Parade Chairman Gail Cobb and his co-workers are recipients of some richly-deserved praise. This feature of the celebration, as all others, clicked in every detail, in spite of the overcast sky. Entries arriving early, found Division chiefs and aides on the job eager and anxious to assign them to their spots.

No group in the large gatherings that witnessed the various events had a more enjoyable time than the Mayor of Simcoe, Ontario, Canada, and the Burgess of Warren, Pennsylvania. Guests of Cliff Betts, president of Chief Cornplanter Council, and Mrs. Betts, at a luncheon at the Blue and White cedar room following the parade, along with others from Simcoe and Warren, the two staged a demonstration harmonious "international relations" that would have done credit to emissaries from the United Nations.

Today's Quiz: What set piece enjoyed during the fireworks display at Beatty Field last night prompted one small girl to turn to her mother with the remark: "I have to go to the bathroom."

Parade officials in charge of the fifth Division seemed to feel that the young Carolyn Veiler's Indian Bonnettes, from Oil City, in their attractive red uniforms drew just about as much applause as any delegation in the mammoth parade. And just about the same could be said for the Bradford Rainbowettes, who marched to snappy singing most of the time.

Drivers and attendants in charge of Civilian Defense equipment, and most of the fire trucks in the parade, learned of the tragic drowning on the Tionesta at Minister in Forest county, through calls that were made over short wave radios from Sheffield asking for firemen and rescue equipment. This word first came across about 12:00 o'clock.

Don McComas, chief of the 17th Division was assisted as aides by his sons, Murray and Andy, and it is interesting to note that another son Jeffrey was aboard the float entered by the Community Discount Company.

Because of lack of space and time many units will not receive the mention they deserve here, but the report would not be complete without some special comment on the fine appearance of the Grove City Flairlettes, always welcome visitors in Warren.

Ike Reed, veteran banker, oldest Division aide in the parade, arrived at the point of disbanding in Third avenue near Conewango about 12:30 o'clock after traversing the entire distance with precision and snap that had many of the younger set limping and exhausted.

The Warren High School Band, leading the 18th Division, was given the big hand it always receives, and it was noticed that Director Harry Summers was just as peppy as any of his young musicians when it came time to fall out at Beatty School.

President Bob Geiger, of the Jaycees, arrived back in town earlier in the week, but found his assistants had everything well in hand during his tour in the F. L. serves.

The borough administration was represented by Burgess Bill Rice and the Chamber of Commerce by President Neil Culbertson, both in the 1st Division.

None of the visitors seemed to have a happier time than Mayor Harry Carter, of Simcoe, Ontario, his wife, and the interesting group that accompanied the Boy Scout Trumpet Band, which included Elthan Durrant, reporter and photographer for the Simcoe Reformer, and Leslie Hayne, president of the Boy Scout Association in the Canadian city and his wife. Another member of the staff of the Simcoe Reformer, who made the trip to Warren, was Otto King, connected with the advertising department. He is president of the Lake Erie Vacation Land Association. He also was accompanied by the "Mrs."

Everybody in the great crowd that gathered at War Memorial Field for the afternoon festivities seemed agreed that it was well worth the effort. It proved one of the most delightful programs ever presented there. The Jaycees concession stand committee and their staff of "hawkers" not only had a busy time, but an interesting one as well.

The young accordionists on the Engstrom Music Studio truck scored another big hit with spectators along the line of march. They were in Division 17.

A bouquet should be handed off to officers and members of the Warren County Active Volunteer Firemen's Association for the excellent turnout of companies. Most of those in the county were represented along with many in adjacent counties in Pennsylvania and New York.

The first sprinkle of rain was noted by the Celebration Committees about 6:30 in the morning, while returning from the early morning salute—but as usual, it failed to dampen their ardor, and "the show went on as scheduled."

There was more rain between 6:30 and 10:30, but the clouds were sufficiently scattered to give promise of a favorable day for the ceremonies. The few sprinkles that fell around the noon hour failed to scatter the huge crowds.

The State Hospital Affiliates received a big share of the applause as they paraded the route from Union street to Beatty School, and when they arrived at the latter point most of them joined the marshal and parade officials in reviewing the remainder of the spectacular pageant.

There were many new faces among the Jaycee workers and parade aides, and they all performed like veterans.

Veterans who have been participating in parades starting with the 1882 Warren Centennial observance recalled that no parade since that time has ever been delayed or postponed because of bad weather.

BUMS, BRAVES AND LEGS NEED BIKINI TO COVER IN NATIONAL

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Tagging the July 4 leaders as the probable winners in the major league pennant races is a game of chance at best. This year it's a game of blind man's bluff. Milwaukee and Cincinnati, each having to battle back to salvage a split, and Brooklyn are so close you could cover them with a bikini bathing suit after yesterday's National League double-headers.

And while the New York Yankees still boast a 3½-game edge in the American League, Mickey Mantle's on the bench with an injured knee. Who's going to bet on the Yanks without Mantle?

Great pitching and heavy swatting won for the three NL leaders. Milwaukee dropped the opener to St. Louis 6-4 on errors, then bounced back 6-1 as Bob Buhl spun a three-hitter to retain the Braves' 5-percentage-point lead.

Chicago's Cubs edged runner up Cincinnati 5-4, but then were bopped by back-to-back home runs by Ted Kluszewski, who had three for the day, and All-Star Frank Robinson in the 4-3 nightcap as unbeaten Brooks Lawrence won his 11th.

And Brooklyn backed up Don Newcomb's 10th victory with 18 hits for a 15-2 runaway in the opener against New York, then eased up as rookie Don Dalrymple and reliever Clem Labine came within two outs of a shutout in the 6-1 afterpiece. That hoisted the Brooks within a half-game of first. It also dropped the Giants into the cellar.

A six-run first inning gave Pittsburgh the second game 8-4 after Philadelphia won the opener 4-2. The Yankees broke even by belting 7-6 in 11 innings. Second-place Chicago split with Kansas City, winning 5-2 as Billy Pierce claimed his 13th victory, then losing 3-2. Third-place Cleveland swept two from Detroit 6-4 and 3-1. Washington beat Baltimore 10-8, then lost 7-4 in a ram-shoatened, six-inning nightcap.

The Phils got all their first-game runs on a pair of homers and a single by Elmer Valo and a home run by Marv Blaylock as Harry Haddix won his sixth, striking out eight. Two errors and six hits provided the Bucs' big first against Stu Miller in the nightcap. Elroy Face won it.

Mantle pulled some ligaments throwing to the plate after fielding Jim Piersall's bust-up single in the 11th inning of the opener. The injury wasn't considered serious, but the Mick's hurts have a habit of getting worse before they get better. Ted Williams homered for the Bostons and Billy Martin slugged one for the Yanks, who scored four in the ninth only to have the Red Sox tie it with one in the last of the ninth.

Mack's News Takes First Half In Hot Stove Eastern Play

In a Midget Division Hot Stove League baseball contest Tuesday, Mack's News pounded Interelectric 10-1 at Beaty Field. Bliss pitched and doubled for the victors while Young caught. Other extra-base smash of the contest was a double by Giddens. Opposing Mack's in the battery department were Massa, Cederquist and Hamilton. The win gave Mack's the first half championship in the Eastern Division of Hot Stove.

They have won seven and lost none.

In a Bantam Division contest Sunday, Gaughn's Drug Store defeated Emblem Oil, 7-3. T Creola was batting champ for the day as he poled a pair of triple base hits for Gaughn's. J Suppa also tripled for the victors. Pitcher and catcher were T Scalise and T Creola. J White got a two-bagger for Emblem and P Occhizzi was on the mound.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

By The Associated Press

Pitching — Bob Buhl, Braves, turned back the Cardinals on three hits 3-1, with the lone run unearned, to retain Milwaukee's first-place edge after St. Louis won opener, 6-4.

Hitting — Al Smith, Indiana, reached base safely seven times with five hits and two walks and stretched his consecutive game hitting streak to 17, delivering a winning two-run triple in the ninth inning of the opener and bringing two runs home in the nightcap as Tribe beat Tigers twice 6-4, 3-1.

SPORTSMAN'S DIGEST

By Hal Sharp
DON'T OVERWORK A FISHING "HOLD"

It's best to know several good fish "holds" and keep moving from one to another, whether on a lake or stream, than to overwork one hold after catching 1 or 2 fish. In it, there are exceptions such as a school of perch, crappie, bluesills (bream), and walleyes. Commotion of playing a fish usually frightens other fish in the same spot. Sometimes it pays to cast a fly 30 times to a trout, or needle a bass until he takes a plug, but most often it pays to move on after a few casts. If you miss a strike, wait a bit, then try a different lure.

Change areas when fish quit!

Egypt's borders enclose a land area equal to that of New Mexico and Texas combined.

Harper Admits He's Rusty, Calls for Bout with Saxon

Oakland, Calif. (AP) — Manager Sid Flaherty called today for an overtime match between his boxer, Maurice Harper, and welterweight champion Johnny Saxon.

Judging from his televised showing last night in outpointing New York's Joe Miceli, the Oakland fighter has a long way to the top class.

Harper admitted he was "rusty" after a layoff since last August and Miceli, the left hook specialist who held a 3-pound advantage at 149, slugged his way into an early lead and sliced the local boxer's left eyelid in the first round.

Harper began scoring with superlative boxing and finished the 10-round fast to cop a unanimous decision. Referee Jack Downey gave Miceli only the first round, scoring 98-93. The judges saw it close, Eddie James 98-94 and Vern Bybee 97-95, the same as the Associated Press. California rules give the winner of each round 10 points, the loser up to 9.

Miceli, who flew out immediately after the bout for New York, said he thought he won by a nail-on Margin.

"He hit me low a couple of times," he said. It was obvious to ringsiders that Harper had landed some punches below the belt during the battle. There was no penalty. The only time Miceli appeared hurt was in the ninth and Joe surged back with a vengeance.

It's a Great Time to Buy a Buick

Buick SPECIAL
6-Passenger 2-Door Riviera

(And at the Best Buy Yet!)

WHAT'S IN IT for you—if you step out and buy yourself a 1956 Buick right now?

Well, first of all—the time is right.

Right now, your present car is at its peak worth.

And, with the whole summer and almost half of '56 still ahead of you, you'll get more enjoyment out of a spirited new Buick this year—if you buy now.

Second, there's the matter of how much more automobile your money buys in the best Buick yet.

AIR CONDITIONING
at a COOL NEW LOW PRICE
It cools, filters, dehumidifies.
Get 4 Season Comfort in your new Buick with genuine
FRIGIDAIRE CONDITIONING

We tell you flatly that nowhere but in a '56 Buick can you get so much bounty for so little booty.

For example, take the beauteous big '56 Buick SPECIAL pictured here.

It's one big reason why Buick now ranks in the top three of America's best-selling cars. Yet, you'll find it priced right close to the well-known smaller cars.

That sure makes Buick a whale of a lot of car for the money. And look:

Nowhere but in a 1956 Buick can you get the absolute smoothness and the electrifying performance of Buick's terrific new Variable Pitch Dynaflow.*

Nowhere else can you get the obedient responsiveness of Buick's big and mighty new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine. Or Buick's matchless new handling ease and ever-level ride buoyancy—or Buick's bold new sweep-ahead styling, and solidity of structure, and stretch-out roominess.

Add it all up and the answer comes out the same, any way you figure it: Now's the time to buy your 1956 Buick.

Will you come in—before another sun sets—and get set with your best buy yet?

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Unit in Remote Communication System For Jet Planes To Be Erected in Watson Township

The increasing speed of air transportation has placed the area around Warren in the flight approach pattern for Cleveland's Municipal Airport.

Under construction on the Hearts Content Road in Watson Township is a remote communications station which will supply landing information and other data to the 100-mile-an-hour (plus) jets which are less than a half-hour from landing at the Cleveland port when they streak overhead.

The physical plant will include a 12x20 foot main building which will house the electronic equipment and another smaller structure which will house the emergency generator system for possible power failures.

Flanking the buildings and triangulating the 120x100 foot lot on the old Jackson Farm will be three 75-foot orange and white towers sporting antennas at the crests. -Engineer in charge of construction, Harold Streit, of Congers, N. Y., reports that the firm has 35 days to complete the task. Foundations for both buildings and radio towers are already underway.

The United States Government, Civil Aeronautics Administration, had already superintended the erection of another such remote station on Elk Mountain and it is indicated that other such peripheral flight pattern stations will be constructed in flanking areas for use by the Cleveland airport.

Military aircraft will be the main users of the voice transmission station at first, according to the engineers, but once civilian aircraft increase their speeds proportionately, they also will use the system.

The building is expected to increase materially the flights over this area, as the controls will "stack" planes in the Warren County skies for landing orders from Cleveland.

Spectacular Parade

The tan slacked Loyal Order of Moose was led by the trim majorette Miss Tricia Trubic and perky Peggy Roth marched with her.

The State Hospital nurses were in their starched white jumpers and blue-striped dickeys. The Boy Scout band from Simcoe, Ontario, Canada, fielded a nice contingent with glistening instruments, green shirts and blue shorts. Gray Ladies were on a Warren Transfer truck with a globe motif.

United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners went along with a "Dog Patch" contingent on their entry and a white cross set off by an inset cross of red was featured on the International World Fellowship float.

Glad Township Gala Days from July 16-21 were advertised on their float. The Gala events will be staged on Conewango avenue extension.

Presentations Are Features of Holiday

In tribute to his outstanding service to the community in general, highlighted by his direction of Civil Defense work during the recent floods, William C. Fuellhart was presented the Benjamin Rush Award Fourth of July night at Beatty Field. Dr. Francis Ericsson presented the trophy which is given annually to someone who has done outstanding work as a lay medical practitioner. In another act of officialdom during the afternoon at Memorial Field, Burgess William E. Rice presented the Key to the City to Mayor Harry Carter of Simcoe, Ontario, Canada, who accompanied the town's Boy Scout unit to the parade. In return Mayor Carter presented the Burgess with a picture of the War Memorial Bell Tower at Simcoe.

The presentation was made to the "City of Warren, Pa., on the occasion of the good will visit of Simcoe Boy Scout Trumpet Band and municipal officials of Simcoe to Warren on July 4, 1956."

THANKS AGAIN TO YOU, MR. EBERTHARDT

George Eberhardt, chief observer for Warren Civil Defense, made the arrangements for the visit of the four F-86 Sabre jets which streaked through here yesterday. doors open showing the interior and stocks, and the other was the newly acquired amphibious duck, ridden on by the pert, green uniformed girls of International Troop No. 22, the Mariners.

Warren High School Band provided their usual fine marching and music feature. Cerebral Palsy foundation had another nice float. Ringling Brothers had a caliope played by a wild one and Warren Fire Department had themselves a spraying good time with a vintage hand pump, circa 1829.

Parade Marshall was Ed C. Lowrey. Bill Lundahl and Benn Newmaker formed and dispatched the parade in sequence while George Cohan and Henry Powell had charge of units assembling at Beatty Junior High School.

Judges for the parade were Class A Drum Corps, Melvin Kelor, James Scalise, Henry Christensen, Robert Daye, Byron Swanson, Everett Emerson, Charles Armstrong, James Senger, Barney Senger, Lloyd VanTassel; Volunteer Fire Department marching and musical units, John Shaeffer and Frank Grutaria; volunteer fire department apparatus, Charles Dorman; color guards, Sgt. Joe Gaurdin, Col. Krieger of Salamanca, Lt. Col. Boudell of Jamestown and Col. Kirland from Virginia; Roats, Arthur Chapman, A. C. Kirberger, Jr., Fred Printz, Sr., Mrs. Homer Culbertson, Robert Jones of Sheffield, Ruel Smith, David Harrington was Jaycees in charge of parade judging.

Fire departments in the parade were from Sheffield, Glade, Rouseville, Lander, Youngsville, Meadville, Sugar Grove, Wrightsville, Starbuck, Complainant Township, Garland, North East, Springboro. Two of the longest house trailers in living memory were drawn along the route for Lott & His Wife.

Riding with the Golden Age Society girls was a real-life niece of Uncle Sam, Mrs. F. Mumford, of Tidiotoune who was celebrating her 81st birthday on the Fourth of July. Watching along the procession were her two daughters, Mrs. Karl Gretzenberger of Sheffield and Mrs. Ray Tibbott.

Rains, which threatened all day, held off again in the afternoon, and thousands more gathered at War Memorial Field for the Class C Stand Still Competition.

First place went to the Flying Dutchmen of Dunkirk Hose Company who scored 92.20 points out of a possible hundred. Other three contenders were ranked as follows: Lakewood Cardinals, 89.48; Cataract Cavaliers of Niagara Falls, 88.37; Malta Marchers of Olean, N. Y., 79.30. The Lakewood contingent was fined two points for having no color guard.

Judges for the Class C Stand Still competition at War Memorial Field yesterday afternoon were: Inspection judge, James Scalise; marching and maneuvering judges, James Singer and John Shaefner; bugles, Loren Wright and Carol Fowler; drumming, Robert Day and Everett Stokes; general effects, Melvin Keller, Barney Senger, and Joe Massa.

Prizes were $150 first, $125 second, $75 third and $50 fourth. Herman Heubach was Jaycee in charge of the drum corps competition.

Grove City Plaidettes, Simcoe Boy Scout Troop and Rainbowettes put on colorful displays during the afternoon.

A slight rain filtered across Beatty Field in the evening but no one left as the Fourth Truck Company of Erie staged a lesson in how to take a bunker. Moving in behind a cloud of perpetual small arms fire and flame throwing, the men routed the "enemy" from a mock up bunker. The tank, which was to have been used in the demonstration, was not put into operation as its treads gouged the turf.

Meadville Rescue Squad Lends Help At Scene of Crash

Meadville Rescue Squad, on its way into Warren for the Fourth of July parade, found itself going right into action yesterday morning when they came across a four-car accident on the three lane west of Warren near the Penelec power plant.

E. A. Sharer, 40, of 230 East Wayne street, Corry, had stopped in traffic. The car behind him had stopped also but then two other following vehicles rammed into them, the mishap involving all four vehicles.

Passengers in the second car, driven by John Smulik, about 30, of 1721 Peach street, Erie, were badly shaken up. Joan Smulik, 13, received a bad head bump, and another backseat passenger, Frank Italiani suffered a leg bruise. Roger Comb, 5, sustained a bad gash over his right eye which was badly blackened.

Driver of the third vehicle was Dr. Combs, 28, of Route 1, Union City. He was following Smulik to the parade and his son was riding with Smulik.

The fourth vehicle, driven by Charles C. Foukrod, about 60, of Battle Creek, Mich., almost stopped and swerved just too late to avoid giving the Combs vehicle a glancing blow.

Combs wife, Josephine, was admitted to Warren General Hospital suffering from shock. Combs himself, when he returned to his home, complained of chest pains and was admitted to the hospital. Betty Lou Combs, 15, also riding in the Combs car, suffered a bad cut over her left eye. All the injured were treated at Warren General.

The Meadville rescue unit, following further down in the line of traffic, saw the accident and were on the scene almost immediately administering first aid. They took the injured to the hospital in their emergency station wagon.

in Dunkirk yesterday afternoon. Today in Niagara Falls, the world's largest tent, almost two football fields long, seating 10,000 people and individual steel chairs, will rise and provide adequate facilities for the usual exhibition which will be in Warren next Monday.

When the circus arrives in Warren next Monday and the band-leader lifts his baton for the afternoon performance, patrons will be comfortably seated under the brand new "big top."

The "Greatest Show on Earth" is arriving Monday morning from Buffalo, where it is appearing Sunday. It is the only show in North America today transported by railroad. Four trains are required to carry the ninety circus-owned and specially built railroad cars. It will unload on the New York Central tracks, either in the yards at Beech street, or on Fourth avenue. Playing Erie on Tuesday the 10th, the circus will load on the Pennsylvania Railroad. Part of it will probably be loaded on the Pennsy siding at Main avenue on the South Side. Other portions, according to reports will be loaded on some sections in or near the PRR yards.

been wading with his brothers, James and Samuel, and a sister, Rebecca, where Minister Run joins Tionesta Creek along Route 666 north of Tionesta. His parents, who own a cottage near there, and an aunt were watching the children from the bank.

When Karl slipped into the 15-foot hole, his father dove in fully clothed to rescue him but had to be pulled out himself when he almost drowned.

The family had been spending the Fourth at their cottage.

Tionesta firemen using grappling hooks got hold of the boy's bathing trunks and brought him to the surface at one point in the afternoon but the body fell back into the hole.

An unnamed Pittsburgh man, also a vacationer, dove in and recovered the body.

Service will be held Saturday at Prospect. Burial will be in the Butler County Memorial Park Cemetery.

State Police Sgt. Steve Banks of the Tionesta station investigated the accident.

Fayette Democrats In Hassle Over Candidate

Uniontown (Pa.)—A meeting of 248 members of the Fayette County Democratic Committee will be held July 14 to consider who should run for the state Senate seat vacated by the election of Judge Eustace H. Eane.

William J. Graham, chairman of the County Democratic Executive Committee, called the meeting yesterday to prevent possible intra-party battles over the nomination.

Usually the nominees would be selected by the county committee, but under the by-laws now proposed the nomination may be made by the county executive committee or even the state central committee.

Grove City Plaidettes, Simcoe Boy Scout Troop and Rainbowettes put on colorful displays during the afternoon.

YOUR MONEY AND YOUR BANK

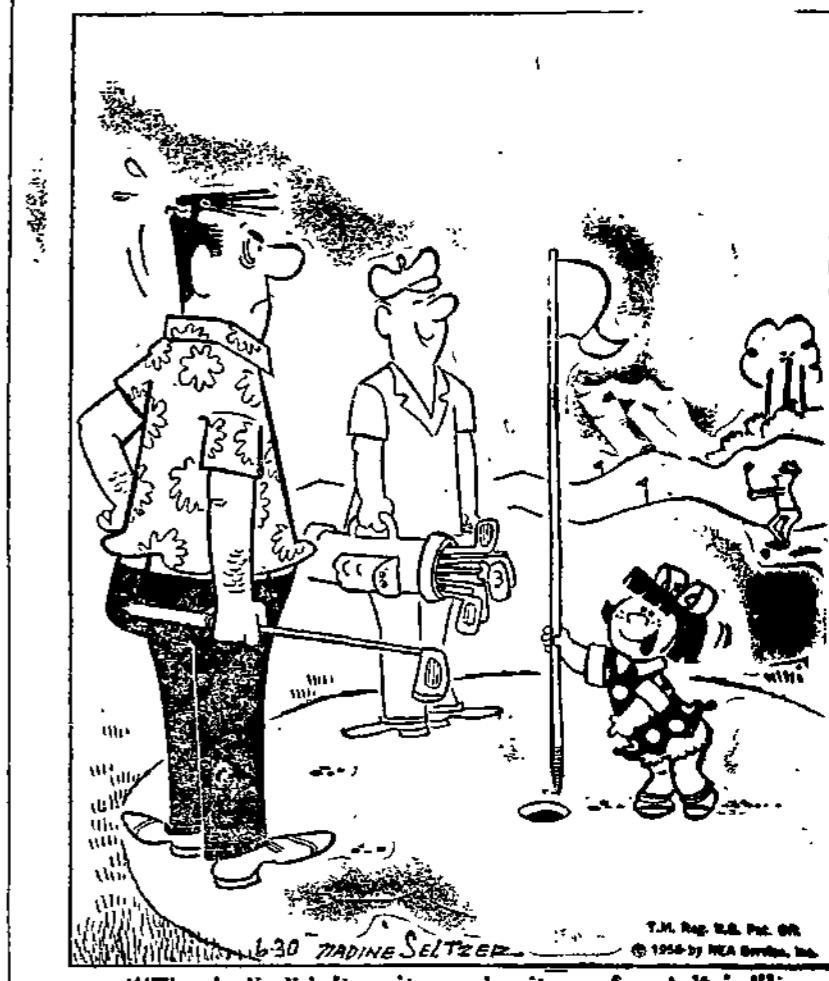

Based on
"USING YOUR BANK"
by Dr. George L. Leffler,
Professor of Finance, The Pennsylvania State University

There are many ways of using your bank to make your vacation more pleasant. In the first place, you can save for all or most of the cost by having a savings account, or a vacation club account if your bank offers that service.

While away from home, travelers' checks are the safest and most convenient way of carrying money for expenses. By leaving your important papers and small valuables in a safe deposit box at your bank, you can be sure that they are safe while you are away.

Last but not least, you can cash a check or make a withdrawal by mail from your savings account if you spend more money than you expected to!
